RG104 E-1 Box 143 Dec 1886

Consulate of the United States.

Sheffield.

September 24th, 1886.

Dear Sir,

I have for many years been intimately acquainted with the Bearer, Mr. John Wycliffe Wilson, of Sheffield. He is a gentleman of the highest integrity, and deservedly possesses the confidence and respect of his fellow Citizens, who have repeatedly placed him in positions of responsibility and honor.

I beg you will pardon the liberty I take in commending Mr. Wilson to your kind attention.

I am, dear Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
C. B. Webster,
Consul of the United States.

To the Director of the Mint
Philadelphia.

RG104 E-1 Box 143 Dec 1886

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., Dec. 1, 1886

Supt. Daniel M. Fox

Introducing Mr. J.
W. Wilson of Sheffield England who would like to examine Mint.

J. J. Knox

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 143

[Letter One:]

Consulate of the United States.
Sheffield.

September 24, 1886

Dear Sir,

I have for many years been intimately acquainted with the Bearer, Mr. John Wycliffe Wilson, of Sheffield. He is a gentleman of the highest integrity, and deservedly possesses the confidence and respect of his fellow citizen, who have repeatedly placed him in positions of responsibility and honor.

I beg you will pardon the liberty I take in commending Mr. Wilson to your kind attention.

I am, dear Sir,
Your obedient Servant,
C.B. Webster
Consul of the United States

To the Director of the Mint,
Philadelphia.

[Letter Two:]

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
December 1, 1886

Supt. Daniel M. Fox

Introducing Mr. J.W. Wilson of Sheffield, England who would like to examine Mint.

J.P. Kimball